

I met Dr. Sadik at the Hague International Forum Conference on population and women's reproductive health. We were just beginning our fight in Congress to restore UNFPA funding.

We had a daunting task before us—restore $25 million for UNFPA during a tough budget fight in a Congress that equates family planning with abortion. But using Dr. Sadik's words that, "population is not someone else's" problem; it's a global issue that needs to engage every country in the world," we won the fight and restored the U.S. contribution to UNFPA.

This past year we achieved another success in Congress, when UNFPA was included in the budget at $25 million. But, we still have a long way to go. My colleagues and I are still working to restore all U.S. funding for international family planning programs back to its 1995 levels. It's far below where we were in the 1980's, but it will be a 20% increase over last year.

This past year, we had more than 120 Members that understand the link between family planning and women's health. With Dr. Sadik at the helm of UNFPA, Congress got the message that family planning is vital to the fight to save women's lives.

Be assured that we will continue Dr. Sadik's fight for women around the world and will work with Thoraya Obaid to keep her legacy moving forward.

Dr. Sadik, thank you for your courage, your leadership, and your commitment to the women of this world. You are an inspiration to us all and we will miss your dearly.

IN MEMORY OF THE OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY TRAGEDY

HON. WES WATKINS

OF OKLAHOMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 31, 2001

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, my heart is heavy and in pain from the tragedy that struck my alma mater—Oklahoma State University, located in my hometown of Stillwater, Oklahoma—on January 27th, 2001.

A plane carrying members of OSU's basketball team, athletic department, and sports broadcast unit crashed shortly after take-off following the OSU men's basketball game at the University of Colorado in Boulder. Ten members of the OSU family lost their lives in the accident.

Understandably, in times such as these, one could not be blamed for believing that the beloved schools of so many had just had a part of itself die. We know these 10 men's families have lost their loved ones, and now have an aching in their heart that will be long in mending. One could not be blamed for believing that life on God's earth is often too barren, and lonely; that the weight of this burden is more than we could possibly endure.

We are only in the beginning of our grief. But deep within our hearts, we humbly know God has a better plan than a lasting hurt. May God provide a lasting and loving memory of the young men who lost their lives.

Daniel Lawson, student athlete; Nate Fleming, student athlete; Jared Weiberg, student manager; Pat Noyes, director of basketball operations; Brian Luinstra, athletic trainer; Will Hancock, coordinator of media relations; Kendall Durfey, engineer for the OSU radio network; Bill Teegins, KWTU sports director and the voice of OSU football and basketball; and two pilots, Denver Mills and Bjorn Falstrom. Every one of these individuals was an important part of the OSU family. We shall miss them dearly, but their memories will live on in our hearts. May the spirit from our wonderful memories of them grant us the grace, peace and strength to fulfill their dreams.

I have a heavy heart—an aching heart—for the loved ones of those who lost their lives. My prayers and love go out to the families, Coach Eddie Sutton and his staff, and the entire OSU family.

Yes, may God's love, mercy and grace sustain and strengthen them. Mr. Speaker, I ask that each member of the House join me as our thoughts and prayers go out to the young men's families, their friends, and to the extended Oklahoma State University family who lost ten loved ones.

IN HONOR OF LARRY BERG

HON. PHIL ENGLISH

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 31, 2001

Mr. ENGLISH. Mr. Speaker, every community has a voice. It's that one person whose voice resonates through the neighborhoods, asking questions and expressing aloud the thoughts of all.

I rise today to pay tribute to one such voice in Butler County, Mr. Larry Berg. He has left an indelible mark on this area of western Pennsylvania, not only as a radio host, but as an active and vital member of the community. Upon his retirement, he deserves to be honored for his outstanding contributions.

As a 16-year-old freshman at New York University, Larry chose his radio broadcasting major simply because it sounded interesting. But during the span of the next 53 years, he found himself working in places such as Baltimore, Des Moines, St. Louis, New Orleans, El Paso and New York. Tired of the gypsy's life, he and his wife decided in 1964 to buy a radio station in Butler, Pa.—a town neither of them had heard of before.

And for 36 years, he ably served this community. On air, he satisfied his listeners by asking probing questions, whether he interviewed the star of the high school musical, a member of Congress, The Beatles' Paul McCartney or even the King himself, Elvis Presley. Larry became a local icon through his daily radio talk show. He brought the world to our cars and living rooms with his unique gift.

His hard work and dedication to the people of Butler County went well beyond what could be heard over the airwaves. Off the air, he served as president of many fine organizations such as the Butler Rotary Club, the Butler County Chamber of Commerce and Tourism, and the B'Nai Abraham Synagogue.

Determined to give back to the community that welcomed him with open arms, he also served as a board member of Butler Memorial Hospital, Visiting Nurses Association of Western PA, Boy Scouts, Salvation Army, Lifesteps, Cancer Society, Butler County Music and Art Festival, and Butler County Jaycees.

And his efforts have not gone unnoticed. He's been honored by various groups including receiving awards such as Junior Man of the Year, Pennsylvania's Most Outstanding Radio Program About Cancer and the City of Butler's True Citizen Award.

Larry is a genuine individual whose openness, honesty and friendliness on and off the air paints a clear picture of his love for the human species. Those who know him describe him not only as an exceptional human being but a wonderful friend, husband to his wife, Judy, father to his three children and grandfather of 10. Now as he retires, I wish to thank Larry for his years of extraordinary service to our community.

Knowing Larry, I am positive that he is entering retirement in name only. He will continue to be a positive influence in Butler County and beyond. I wish him the best in the coming years. This may mark the end of his radio program, but it is simply life moving on to a different frequency.
